On August 16, 2022 the Waldron Village Council held a special meeting @ the Wright-Waldron Municipal Building. President Russell Platt called the meeting to order @ 7:00 p.m. and all stood to recite the Pledge of Allegiance. Roll call was taken with Darcie Salmon and Bettie Salmon absent and all others present.

Approval of the Agenda: Shawn Barnhart made a motion to approve the agenda. Karen McNett supported and it carried by a voice vote.

Public Comment: None

Filling the Billing Clerks Position: Russell Platt presented a letter of resignation from Chris Douglas. Bill Hall made a motion to accept the resignation from Chris Douglas. Phyllis Worsley supported and it carried by a voice vote.

Bill Hall had typed a job description for the billing clerk. After each council member read the description they all approved the wording. Wages were discussed and approved. Shawn Barnhart made a motion to post the position of Billing Clerk with applications due by 5:00 P.m. on August 26, 2022.

Audit: Margy Burress said that Jon Nowinski from Lally in Jackson will be doing the village audit. The village audit only need done every 2 yrs. because of its size and that they don't need the more expensive yellow book audit done.

Public Comment: None

Shawn Barnhart made a motion to adjourn until September 13, 2022. Phyllis Worsley supported and it carried by a voice vote. Meeting adjourned @ 7:55 p.m.
